Govt Secy) The Trustees Mysore may grant them sites preferably not far from shops — may be given sites in extension of Yadavagiri

Respected Sir,

We, the undersigned belonging to the caste of Thirugana Shetty, living in Ganaga Keri, Mandi Mohalla, Mysore, most respectufully beg to state the following to your kind consideration and for early favourable orders,-

We are the natives of Mysore City since we born and we are put to much difficulty owing no houses for living This we brought to your kind notice by an application on 18-12-1947 and again several times after that

HLS 9/4

After some time your goodself came and inspected a spot for alloting sites for our caste in Yadavagiri Extention , Mysore, and informed the Municipal Authorities to do the needful in the matter

14/4

But we regret to inform your goodself that the Municipal authority has not taken any action upon this Hence we once again beg of you to kindly remind the Municipal authority in this matter as we poor people are very much suffering for want of living houses

16/4

For which act of sympathetic consideration We shall be ever grateful

We beg to remain,
Respected Sir,
